HOW YOU CAN SUPPORT ITI

T. Sasitharan
Co-Founder/Director

Below are some of the opportunities currently available. Have other ideas? We always welcome input from people who love the arts and support the work of ITI:

- Make a tax-deductible donation – and the Government will match it dollar-for-dollar through the newly established Cultural Matching Fund
- Host a home stay for an international student for a period of 3 to 6 months
- The Library Project: help with cataloguing of ITI materials, including inventory checks, labelling and shelving of books
- Organise employee donation matching initiatives

Complete the enclosed application form to become a Friend of ITI now!

HELP US TRANSFORM CONTEMPORARY THEATRE, ONE STUDENT AT A TIME

Goh Su Lin
General Manager

ITI is a non-profit organisation that depends on the support and donations of arts lovers like you. It is only with your support that ITI can continue to develop to its fullest potential and produce award-winning theatre artists who go on to enrich and transform contemporary theatre all over the world.

As a uniquely Singaporean company, ITI proudly flies the Singapore flag both at home and abroad, with connections across 22 countries and counting.

Graduates from ITI's first four cohorts are leading the charge in Singapore, India, Malaysia, the Philippines, Taiwan, Macao, Hong Kong, China, Mexico, France and Japan.

Among our distinguished alumni are Peter Sau, a recipient of the 2011 Young Artist Award by the National Arts Council; Yeo Yann Yann, winner of the 2013 Best Supporting Actress Award for her role in Ilo Ilo at the Golden Horse Awards; and Felimon Blanco, a recipient of the 2013 Most Outstanding Zambosurian Award (Philippines).

With your support, we can continue to nurture the next generation of outstanding theatre artists and leaders.
